THIS WEEK'S NEWS & NOTICES

A MESSAGE FROM BENJI

How have you been coping with the avalanche of new information about COVID-19 (aka coronavirus)? The epidemic, the reports from doctors and nurses barely coping on the front line?

Has it been stirring anxiety - a little fear? Maybe you've seen it in others and in your kids. Gone to stock the shelves at home with toilet paper and hand sanitizer?

Today we're asking the question "what would Jesus do?"

To first address the anxious fear, for those blessed to call Jesus their friend, the scriptures help us richly. Psalms, the prayers that Jesus prayed, have many prayers of reassurance in troubling times.

Psalm 91 is a great psalm that one of my boys found really helpful when they used to have nightmares as a toddler (look up the Melbourne Band 'Sons of Korah' song 'Psalm 91'. It's a great song to play for kids struggling to get to sleep at night.) It actually states not to fear "the pestilence that stalks in the darkness, nor the plague that destroys at midday." Psalm 91:6.

Psalm 139, another of my favourites, finishes with these great words worthy of memorising and mediating on. "Search me, God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts. See if there is any offensive way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting." Psalm 139:23-24

The book of Joshua (a name which means the LORD saves) starts with God giving Joshua confidence in the face of anxiety. He's just taken over leadership from Moses and is about to embark on a great battle, the repeated command in chapter 1 is "Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go." Joshua 1:9.

Jesus tells us "do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own." Matthew 6:34.

Finally, the apostle John tells us "perfect love drives out all fear" 1 John 4:18.

So be practical in the days ahead. Focus on what you can control (e.g. washing hands, following advice). Pray, let go of the rest to Jesus and be glad you're not God. Fill your mind with healthy things. If the news is getting you too anxious, limit the news feeds. Check and listen to the facts rather than the sensational. Keep a bigger perspective. Finally, know that the Lord our God is with us.
